FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE*Shepherd's Center of Northern Virginia Receives Commendation from the Virginia House of Delegates*July 21, 2025 — Northern Virginia

The Shepherd's Center of Northern Virginia is proud to announce that it has received a formal commendation from Holly M. Seibold and the House of Delegates of the Commonwealth of Virginia on July 21, 2025.

This distinguished recognition honors the Shepherd's Center of Northern Virginia for its continued dedication to helping older adults maintain their independence and age with dignity. Through compassionate service, community-based programs, and volunteer-driven support, the organization has made a lasting impact on the lives of older adults and their families throughout Northern Virginia.

The commendation acknowledges the Shepherd's Center's longstanding commitment to empowering seniors to remain active, engaged, and self-sufficient, while fostering a supportive network that enhances quality of life and promotes respectful aging.

"We are deeply honored to receive this commendation from Holly M. Seibold and the Virginia House of Delegates," said Executive Director, Carolyn Pennington. "This recognition affirms the importance of our mission and reflects the dedication of our staff, volunteers, and supporters who work tirelessly to serve older adults in our community."

The Shepherd's Center of Northern Virginia remains committed to expanding its programs and partnerships to ensure that older adults continue to have access to the resources, services, and social connections they need to thrive.
